

Page

2	Art of the environment — editorial
	Human Environment
4	Where the environment begins	John Clarke, lecturer in philosophy
8	Tree of creativity	Mary Seyd, SEA Council
12	Genius in aborigine children	John Morley, lecturer in art, South Australia
16	Creative cell	Charles Pulsford, formerly art school principal and NCDAD panel member
20	Routes to school	Jeff Bishop, lecturer in research into psychology and architecture
23	Changing the human environment	Sheila Beskine, art teacher and therapist
	Natural Resources
24	Colours of the environment	John Whitmore, art teacher
28	FLORA — Dyes from plants in the garden	Isabel Mabey, artist and teacher
29	FAUNA — Animal architecture	Robin Whalley, librarian and lecturer in human and animal perception
30	EARTH — Pigments from local rocks ...	Dr Peter Cray, geologist/art lecturer
33	AIR — Achievement with wings	Leigh Odlin, art teacher
34	FIRE — Kilns at the Open Air Museum ...	Mary Seyd, Pottery Research Group
35	WATER — Water as a medium of expression	Dr Kate MacSorley, Director, Institute of Child Psychology
36	The art and craft of survival	Nic Harrington, lecturer in environmental studies
	The Learning Environment
37	The learning environment — art at the threshold	Margaret Moody, assistant professor at a Canadian University
40	Place of disquiet	Jeffery Lloyd, head of an art department and SEA Council member
41	The artist and his role in creating the environment	Joan Griffiths, SEA Council, on the IAA Conference at Varna
42	Living in towns	On Colin Ward's project with the BBC
42	Book lists
46	INSEA News Letter from Dr Al Hurwitz, W President
48	Translated summaries of the main articles in French and German	